P&S Outstanding New Council Member Award

Iowa State University is a great institution because talented individuals come here to work and to make a real commitment to excellence. This process is designed to recognize P&S Council members, particularly those that are new to council and committed to make a difference.

For this reason, the Professional & Scientific Council is calling for nominations of P&S candidates for the "P&S Outstanding New Council Member Award."

P&S Outstanding New Council Member Award Criteria: The individual must be a P&S Council member newly elected within the past 18 months and must meet the following criteria:

- Has established a pattern of reliability and responsibility
- Fosters a spirit of cooperation and has strong interpersonal relationships with fellow council members
- Exhibits potential for future contributions to Iowa State University and/or community

What happens if a candidate is selected to receive a P&S Outstanding Council member award?

The President will present the recipient with a certificate of recognition at the P&S Council Awards ceremony. Nominators and awardees will be notified of the award. Additional announcements may appear in Inside Iowa State, the P&S Council newsletter, or other Iowa State publications. One award will be given annually.

Who can make nominations for the P&S Outstanding Council Member Awards? Any employee of Iowa State University can submit an award nomination for any P&S employee.

Due Date for the P&S Outstanding Council Member Awards: December 1
